

NO
TIME TO DIE 007

Future Career Friday

Careers Behind the Camera

How many careers in the film Industry can you name?

The film industry in the UK

- In the UK, right now, there are amazing opportunities to get involved in film and the screen industry. In fact, the UK film industry has job shortages in some roles.
- There's huge growth in this sector in the UK.
- Between 2001 and 2015, 48 of the 200 top-grossing films released worldwide were made in the UK!
- As well as a demand for people with technical and industry-specific skills (electricians, accountants, underwater camera operators), there is also a need for people with general, transferable skills, such as problem solving, analytical skills and teamwork.

Behind the scenes on Bond: Jamaica

Activity

Watch the 'behind-the-scenes' video on the next slide. You will see actors from the film and people in behind-the-scenes roles.

Can you identify:

1) Different film industry job roles that you might have heard of before?

Can you suggest:

2) Which behind-the-scenes departments might be represented in this film?

What kinds of industry roles can you spot?

© 2021 Danjaq, LLC and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios Inc.

Careers Behind the Camera quiz

- Want to learn more about the film industry?
- Check out Into Film's Careers Behind the Camera quiz an online quiz that tests pupil knowledge of the film industry and includes footage from the No Time to Die trailer.'
- Visit notimetodieintofilm.com to play.

Next step: ScreenSkills

- Interested in a career in film?
- Get proactive and find out more at www.screenskills.com/starting-your-career.
- Access NFTS, the Outreach programme at the National Film and Television School, will be running virtual careers events throughout September supported by No Time To Die. To keep up to date with events and for more information on Access NFTS please go to www.nfts.co.uk/access

